P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, Presidents' Day has been observed throughout the nation for the past eleven years; and

WHEREAS, the office of the President of the United States of America is the highest and most important office that an American citizen may attain; and it is the living and working symbol of our American way of life, our Flag, and our Constitution, and

WHEREAS, the free peoples of our nation and the world today face their greatest trials for survival of this way of life, and

WHEREAS, a study of the lives of our presidents is a study of our American history and heritage,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 5, 1962 as in South Dakota, and invite the people of South Dakota to observe such a day in such manner as they may desire in schools and in other suitable places with ceremonies appropriate in recognition of the office of the President of the United States of America and review the lives of all our presidents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 14 day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two.

Archie Gubbrud
